

DON'T FAIL.

The crew of the George Leary will give a grand excursion to Glymont on the 18th of this month, next Wednesday. Every person who has received the benefit of this boat and the kind treatment from the crew should not fail to go down the river next Wednesday.

There is the genial Austin Ficklin who is always ready to appease the wants of the passengers; the smiling Will H. Thomas, who has a kind word for everybody will have the excursion in charge. Don't fail to attend. See advertisement elsewhere.

The True Reformers gave an excursion to Glymont on Tuesday.

The National Steamboat Company will go to Norfolk this evening and on Monday. The round trip is only $1.50.

The Valkyrie defeated the Defender on Tuesday by a foul.

There were very few who went down on the excursion of the Fifteenth Street Presbyterian Church.

The last excursion of the season will be in this month.

MOUNT FUMI YAMA TURNS VOLCANO.

Indications Point to an Eruption in a Short Time.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 5.—By the Empress of China advices say that, according to Japanese papers, Mount Fumi Yama is expected to become an active volcano shortly.

Smoke has been emitted freely of late and the sand in the vicinity is not enough to cook an egg in a very short time. The locality is known to have been volcanic, and for years past smoke has been emitted. The thermometer registered 92 degrees in the ground, stones being heated to such a degree that they cannot be touched.

DELEGATE CONTEST.

There seems to be some doubt among the politicians as to who will be the strongest and best man to represent the republican party from this city in the next national convention.

The BEE has printed a list of the gentlemen who have been mentioned as candidates, and as an inducement to make this contest interesting, the BEE will present a fine gold headed cane to the candidate who receives the highest number of coupons. The coupons will be received and counted by the contest editor, and all coupons will be kept and counted in the presence of a committee to consist of one friend from each candidate.

Each coupon will count one vote, which must be sent to the contest editor of the BEE.

THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE.

WHO WILL THE NEXT DELEGATES BE? VOTE FOR YOUR CHOICE.

The coming Republican contest for delegates to the next National Republican Convention will be a hot one. Public meetings have been held throughout the city, and it is still undecided who the most popular man is.

As a test of each man's strength the BEE will publish the list of the probable candidates, with a coupon attached, which will enable friends of each candidate to vote for his choice.

How He Cured Her.

"It's all right, Mary," he said, patiently. "Go into politics and run for office if you want to. But remember one thing, the cartoonists 'll be after you as soon as you're a candidate."

"And they'll put your picture in the paper with your hair out of curl and your hat on crooked."

"Do you think they would do that?" she inquired, apprehensively.

"Of course. And they'll make your Paris gowns look like 10-cent calico and say that your sealskin coat is imitation."

Oatmeal Pone.

Put a cupful of oatmeal into a greased pan holding two quarts. Add a quart and a half of cold water and a teaspoonful of salt, set it in the oven and leave it untouched for two hours. Keep a steady but not too hot fire. It can be cut in thick, square cakes and served hot.

QUAY MAY OPPOSE DON CAMERON.

Intimation That the Latter's Political Career Will Soon End.

New York, Sept. 9.—A special to the Sun from Philadelphia says the recent victory of Senator Quay is likely to result in the defeat of the Hon. James Donald Cameron for another term as Senator. It now seems absolutely certain that Senator Quay will oppose the re-election of Cameron to the Senate.

At no time during the hand-to-hand contest just ended did Cameron indicate in any manner to any person in Pennsylvania his desire to see Senator Quay succeed. On the contrary, Cameron was not only indifferent, but he ran away from the fight, not caring whether Quay came out on top or was overborne and snatched by the Magee and Martin combine.

This is not the first time that Cameron has run away from a contest in which Quay staked everything. During the year 1885, Matthew Stanley Quay determined to run for State Treasurer, as a step toward his election to the United States Senate. He consulted Senator Cameron freely in regard to the plan; Cameron strongly advised against it, even going so far as to tell Quay that he would surely be defeated if he went before the people.

Senator Cameron's advice was disregarded. Quay made a most spirited canvass and won on pretty much the same line as two weeks ago. Throughout the campaign for the nomination, Cameron doubted the ability of Quay to succeed at the general election; it would be a great mistake to nominate him, as he expressed it.

Senator Quay will not go to Los Angeles or Bar Harbor during the next Senatorial campaign in Pennsylvania, but he may be fishing for tarpon among the overglades of Florida just about the time the next Senator is voted for by the Pennsylvania Legislature.

Again I have spent several hours with Senator Quay since his last triumph, and there was force and significance in his remarks. "If Cameron is returned to the Senate it will be as the candidate of the combine which tried so hard to defeat me for State Chairman. He is their candidate and has been through the contest, and they will re-select him if they can."

TRIUMPH OF THE ALMIGHTY DOLLAR

English Press Comments on the Defender's Great Victory.

London, Sept. 9.—The Pall Mall Gazette, in its comments this afternoon on the international yacht race of Saturday, says: "We fear there is no America's Cup this year for Lord Dunraven. The better boat won, as it is likely to win every time. The chief defect of Valkyrie, to which we have on several occasions alluded, is the fuss she makes going through the water. The conditions of the first match, therefore, were much against her. With a calm surface she may do better, but in stronger winds she is not likely to do so well. English yachtsmen may console themselves as best they can with recollections of Britannia's triumphs over Navahoe and Vigilant."

In another place the Pall Mall Gazette says that the excursion steamer following the yachts behaved even more disgracefully than usual, but there is no suggestion that they hampered one of the boats more than the other. "Perhaps the most disappointing feature," adds the Gazette, "is the Defender's gain on the road reach home, when there was no rough weather."

All the London papers dwell upon the rowding of the course by excursion steamers. The Sun says: "There is no nation that we would rather take a beating from than America, especially as probably no other could administer it."

The Standard says that the defeat of Valkyrie is far from being a disastrous one, and that there is no need to lose hope. The Evening News does not see much hope that Valkyrie will win in the coming matches. This paper also comments upon the enormous expense of building and equipping Defender, whose success, it says, is another triumph of the Almighty dollar.

The Globe says: "Englishmen generally will be ready to echo the straightforward verdict of Lord Dunraven's representative that we were fairly beaten."

The St. James Gazette finds small comfort for English yachtsmen in the result of the first heat.

35 MINERS MAY BE LOST.

They Did Not Heed the Warning of Danger at Houghton, Mich.

Houghton, Mich., Sept. 9.—It is positively known that thirty-five doomed men are entombed in the Osceola mine with no possibility of the recovery of their bodies until the fire is extinguished, which may not be for months. It is the opinion of some of the oldest officials of the mine that the fire was the work of an incendiary.

All of the doomed miners might have escaped had the heeded warnings, as Captain Edwards, who was the first to detect the existence of fire, dispatched messengers to every slope where miners were known to be working. As the mine is not heavily timbered except in the shafts, the idea of serious danger was voiced. By going a roundabout way all the men who were in the lower level of No. 4 shaft might have escaped, but they preferred the shorter route of ascent by hat shaft, and when they got up to the eighteenth level they found themselves cut off. Some perished in the shafts, expecting to reach other shafts.

Twenty of the thirty-five are married men and most of them have large families.

ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP A CHURCH.

Hichigan Vandals Use Dynamite to Get Money From a Corner Stone.

Greenville, Mich., Sept. 9.—An attempt was made yesterday to blow up the First Congregational Church of this city with dynamite. The charge was placed under the corner stone, but not being put under as enough, little damage was done. The supposition is that the attempt was made for the purpose of obtaining a large sum of money that is reported to have been deposited in the corner stone when the church was built.

Peppermint Plants Used for Hay.

Niles, Mich., 6.—Owing to the scarcity of hay the farmers in this vicinity are curing peppermint plants. Experiments have indicated that they give better results than timothy hay when fed to stock. Gets scalded with hot soups, etc., and burned from handling hot dishes.

MR. W. R. PENDER.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Feb. 6, 1894.

Lyon Manufacturing Co., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Gentlemen:—I am a waiter in Hotel Kennon, Goldsboro, and sometimes get scalded with hot soup or coffee, and burned from handling hot dishes and such things. I always use Mexican Mustang Liniment for the burns or scalds and it is only a day or two before they are all healed up. I have, also, great fat. In its for such things as cuts and strains. I thought this might do some one a little good, and I wish to let all my friends know what a good remedy this liniment is. The waiters in this hotel know all about Mustang Liniment for I always recommend it to them, but I want the waiters all over the country to see this and give this liniment a trial if they ever have a burn or scald, or any little thing that is apt to happen to them around the kitchen.

I am, your friend,

W. R. PENDER.
